LA VENTA INN REOPENING IN SEPTEMBER

AFTER CLOSING IN MARCH OF 2020, THE FUTURE OF LA VENTA WAS UNCERTAIN BUT NOW THANKS TO MEG WALKER, CEO AND EXECUTIVE CHEF OF MADE BY MEG, THIS HISTORIC VENUE WILL REOPEN FOR EVENTS IN SEPTEMBER.

Meg Walker is a native to Manhattan Beach and started her successful catering business in 2007. She tells us that she is "committed to preserving the appearance of the iconic landmark and maintaining its notable lush and plentiful landscaping." For a refresh of the interior of the building, she has partnered with local interior designer Dannielle Albrecht. "The interior changes are all cosmetic and honor the property's long history" she says. Made by Meg is officially now the lessee, operator and exclusive caterer for the venue.
