

2 New Downtown Denver Hotels, More New and Renovated News Out West

California

La Venta Inn. Credit: Figlewicz Photography

This fall, the historic La Venta Inn in Palos Verdes Estates officially reopened under the leadership of new operator, Megan Walker, CEO and executive chef of esteemed Southern California catering company Made by Meg. The 98-year-old property begins its next chapter with refreshed interiors and Made by Meg as its exclusive caterer.

Known for its unobstructed views of the Pacific Ocean, La Venta Inn's new design and color palette of creams, muted gold, navy and blush make it an ideal canvas for events. In the ballroom, planners will find refinished wood floors complementing modern chandeliers and sconces that exude soft lighting.

When it comes to F&B, Made by Meg serves seasonal, gourmet cuisines with a comprehensive menu that includes over 1,500 dish options.

Read Next: [Two New Luxury Hotels and ocV!BE District Catapult Anaheim, California's Meetings Capabilities]